ABOUT US

Gramrajya Vikas Evam Prashikshan Sanstha (GVPS) is a non-profit, non-government development organization committed to improving the lives of disadvantaged communities in Rajasthan, India, utilising an integrated and sustainable approach. It prioritises participation and empowerment of local communities. GVPS evolved out of a grass root level organization in 2002 in the village of Nangal Sherpur in the Karauli district of Rajasthan. The organisation was registered under Rajasthan Society Registration Act, 1958. The organization, committed to improving lives of disadvantaged communities in Rajasthan, India, utilising an integrated and sustainable approach. It prioritises participation and empowerment of marginalized and deprived communities, local communities. GVPS became involved in local efforts to enhance the well-being of communities that have been living in this region amongst these deficits. From its humble beginnings, GVPS today is a rapidly growing organisation supported by numerous donors. It implements specific community-need based programmes to reduce and ultimately eradicate poverty. It also links up environmental issues with human needs. GVPS, with long sustained experience understands that poverty reduction strategy must essentially address all the interlinked developmental issues an impoverished community faces every day. GVPS, thus continues improving the quality of life of the disadvantaged sections of communities living deep within the Rajasthan remote rural, urban and semi-urban operational areas by its relentless sustainable work on varied range of issues like ill health, child rights issues, lack of livelihood opportunities, and protect the environment. GVPS give quality education to marginalized, Denotified and deprived communities childrens. GVPS work on child issue with CHILDLINE 1098 in Bundi, Rajasthan. The organization is also registered under Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act 1976, Section 12A Income Tax Act 1961, activities of GVPS are operational in Karauli and Bundi.
